

CPF Advisory Panel

CHAIRPERSON

Koh Yong Guan

Chairman, Central Provident Fund Board

Mr Koh Yong Guan was appointed Chairman, Central Provident Fund Board on 1 July 2005 after he retired as Managing Director of the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS). Mr Koh remains as a Board Member of the MAS, and is the Chairman of the Steering Committee overseeing the organisation of the IMF/ World Bank Meetings in Singapore in September 2006. Mr Koh is the Chairman of the Singapore Turf Club and Singapore Pools (Pte) Ltd as well as a Director of MND Holdings (Pte) Ltd. He is also Chairman of the Singapore Island Country Club, the largest country club in Singapore. Mr Koh did his undergraduate and postgraduate studies at the University of Toronto. He also has a Masters in Business Administration from the Catholic University of Leuven.

MEMBER

Bart J. Broadman

Managing Director, Alphadyne Asset Management Pte Ltd

Mr Bart J. Broadman is Managing Director of Alphadyne Asset Management based in Singapore. Prior to forming Alphadyne, Mr Broadman spent 14 years in Asia working for J.P. Morgan, most recently as Vice Chairman of Asia and Head of Markets (Credit, Rates, and Equities) in Asia. A citizen of the United States, Mr Broadman earned his MBA and PhD in Financial Economics from the University of Southern California.

MEMBER

Christina Lindenius
Director General, Premium Pension Authority

Ms Christina Lindenius is Director General at the Swedish Premium Pension Authority (PPM). Ms Lindenius has a rich background in financial market issues. She was Director General at the Ministry of Finance, where she headed the Department of Financial Institutions and Markets. As Director in the Swedish central bank (Sveriges Riksbank), she has headed the Monetary and Foreign Exchange Policy Department and the Market Operations Department. She studied at the University of Uppsala in Sweden and at the School of Advanced International Studies, the Johns Hopkins University, in Washington D.C.

MEMBER

Dirk Witteveen
Executive Director, Dutch Central Bank

Mr Dirk Witteveen is Executive Director of De Nederlandsche Bank. From January 2001 till November 2004, Mr Witteveen was the Chairman of the Pension & Insurance Supervisory Authority of the Netherlands (Pensioen- & Verzekeringskamer). Prior to this, he was Chairman of the Committee on the tax treatment of pensions and trusts from 1994-95. He studied law at the University of Leiden, specializing in tax law.

MEMBER

Greg Seow
Chairman, Investment Management Association of Singapore

Mr Greg Seow is the present Chairman of the Investment Management Association of Singapore, and Advisor at DBS Asset Management. Before joining DBS, Mr Seow was with Pacific Asset Management (Singapore), the Government of Singapore Investment Corporation (GIC), and the Monetary Authority of Singapore. At the GIC, he was responsible for overseeing its global fixed income and real estate investment portfolios. He holds both his undergraduate and Masters degrees in Economics from the Australian National University.

MEMBER

Hauw Soo Hoon
Former Executive Director, Insurance Department
Monetary Authority of Singapore

Mrs Hauw-Quek Soo Hoon is the former Executive Director of Insurance Supervision Department at the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS). Prior to the MAS, Mrs Hauw-Quek has over 23 years of insurance industry experience in Singapore and the United Kingdom. She also has broad experience at the international level especially on education issues of insurance supervisors in emerging markets. She is former Chair of the International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS) Education subcommittee and is currently a member of the Insurance Advisory Board of the Toronto International Leadership Centre for Financial Sector Supervision (Toronto Centre). She continues to be involved with the IAIS on education issues and is an Independent Director of Millea Asia Pte Ltd and Chairman of its Audit Committee.

Mrs Hauw-Quek obtained First Class Honours, BSc (Econs) specialising in Statistics from the London School of Economics and Political Science. She is Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries (UK) and Fellow of the Life Insurance Management Institute (USA).

MEMBER

John Palmer

Member, Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority

Mr John Palmer was born in Canada and holds B.A from the University of British Columbia. Mr Palmer joined the firm that is now KPMG in 1966 following service with the Royal Trust Company and the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, holding a number of senior positions, including Deputy Chairman and Managing Partner of the Canadian firm. He retired from KPMG in 1994 to become Superintendent of Financial Institutions for Canada, responsible for supervision of banks, insurance companies and private pension plans. On completing his term, he accepted a three-year assignment with the Monetary Authority of Singapore as Deputy Managing Director, responsible for supervision of banks and insurance companies in Singapore. He is currently Chairman of the Toronto International Leadership Centre for Financial Sector Supervision.

During his career, Mr Palmer has served on the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision and the Financial Stability Forum. In Canada, he has served on the Panel of Senior Advisors to the Auditor General of Canada. In Singapore he has served as Member of the Council for Corporate Disclosure and Governance and chaired its Core Committee. He is also Director of the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority and chaired its Public Accountants Oversight Committee. He is Fellow of the Institutes of Chartered Accountants of Ontario and British Columbia.

MEMBER

Jon Robinson

Managing Director, Vanguard Investments Singapore Pte Ltd

Mr Jon Robinson started working with The Vanguard Group in January 2003 with responsibilities for the Group's business in Asia ex-Japan. Prior to joining Vanguard, Mr Robinson was formerly Managing Director of the global consulting firm Watson Wyatt's Singapore office where he was responsible for the firm's businesses in South East Asia. Mr Robinson has over 20 years experience in the pensions and investment consulting industry having worked in UK, Australia, Hong Kong, Indonesia and Singapore, for consultants William Mercer and Watson Wyatt. He has advised a variety of governments and corporations on pensions and investment issues.

MEMBER

Michael Dee

Managing Director, Investment Banking Division (Houston)
Morgan Stanley

Mr Michael Dee serves as Morgan Stanley's Managing Director and the Regional Head of the Houston office for its Investment Banking Division. Mr Dee has been with Morgan Stanley for more than 24 years, and had spent 15 years overseas in various Investment Banking positions in London, Hong Kong and Singapore. He was appointed Singapore's new Honorary Consul General in Houston in end January 2006.

While in Singapore, Mr Dee sat on several committees and boards. These included Member of Singapore's Economic Review Committee (sub-committee for taxes, wages, land use and CPF, and sub-group on domestic financial services), Board Member of Asian Civilisations Museum, Singapore American School, Singapore Management University the Make-A-Wish Foundation, and the Economic Development Board. He was Council Member on the IBF Council and Member of the South West Community Development Council Corporate. He also played a key role in major transactions for Singapore's Temasek Holdings, PSA Corporation, Singapore Power, Singapore Telecommunications and DBS Bank, among others. He graduated from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania with a B.S. in Economics.

MEMBER

Olivia S. Mitchell

Professor, Insurance and Risk Management,
International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans;
Executive Director, Pension Research Council,
Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania

Dr Olivia S. Mitchell is the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans Professor of Insurance and Risk Management, and the Executive Director of the Pension Research Council, at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. At the University, Dr Mitchell is also Director of the Boettner Center on Pensions and Retirement Research, Fellow of the Wharton Financial Institutions Center and the Leonard Davis Institute, and Research Associate as well as Board Member of the Penn Aging Research Center. Concurrently, she is Research Associate at the National Bureau of Economic Research and Co-Investigator for the Health and Retirement Study at the University of Michigan. Her main areas of research and teaching are private and public insurance, risk management, public finance and labor markets, and compensation and pensions, with a US and an international focus. Dr Mitchell served on President Bush's Commission to Strengthen Social Security (www.csss.gov) and served as Public Member of the US Department of Labor's ERISA Advisory Council. She has provided testimony to committees of the US Congress, the UK Parliament, the Australian Parliament, and the Brazilian Senate. Her co-authored study on Social Security reform won the Paul Samuelson Award for "Outstanding Writing on Lifelong Financial Security" from TIAA-CREF. She previously taught at Cornell University; she was Research Associate and Visiting Professor at Harvard University, the Goethe University of Frankfurt, and the University of New South Wales. Dr Mitchell received her MA and Ph.D. degrees in Economics from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and the BA in Economics from Harvard University.

MEMBER

Ross Jones

Deputy Chairman, Australian Prudential Regulation Authority

Mr Ross Jones has been appointed Deputy Chairman of Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) for a five year term, commencing 1 July 2003. Mr Jones is an Economist and an Associate Professor in the School of Finance and Economics at the University of Technology, Sydney. Before his appointment to APRA, he was Commissioner of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC), responsible for mergers, acquisitions and telecommunications. He was also Commissioner responsible for matters relating to specific sectors including aviation financial services, media and broadcasting. He is also former Chairman of the International Air Services Commission and Associate Member of the Australian Broadcasting Authority and the Australian Communications Authority.

Mr Jones has worked as an economic consultant to the private and public sector. He has undertaken extensive work with the ACCC, the Trade Practices Commission, and the Prices Surveillance Authority as well as competition authorities overseas.